

ATTENTION, VOLUNTEERS!

Capt. Stapp's Company of MOUNTED VOLUNTEERS,

Have been accepted by the War Department, and are ordered to rendezvous at Quincy, as soon as practicable.

The Volunteers of said company are hereby commanded to meet at Monmouth on Saturday the 17th inst., at 1 o'clock, P.M. All who desire to join said company, are required to attend the said meeting, or report themselves to the undersigned, at Monmouth.

Twenty dollars per month; $12 bounty, and $100 in addition, at the close of the war.

G. C. LANPHERE, 1st Lieut.

G. W. PALMER, 1st 2d Lieut.

D. S. COWEN, 2d 2d Lieut.

Monmouth, July 10, 1847.